

NEW YORK FASHION LETTER

New York, Nov. 4. — The two departments which are most interesting to women at the present time, the costumes and the millinery, are full of possibilities for the woman who aims to dress well on a limited in-waist under the corset, and makes that article more pliable. Never before have such vast sums of money been lavished upon underwear, the gossamer nothingness of which is absolutely necessary to insure the beauty lines which is the pillar and foun-an item of the wardrobe as has been the case for some seasons, for practically every kind and every style of fur garment, tie and neckpiece will be worn. Neckpieces, consisting of the entire animal, including head and tails, are once more extremely stylish; yet, at the same time, flat, stoles and round, untrimmed boas have lost none of their popularity. Even the question of sleeves is not an arbitrary one, for a smart furrier is making coats with big zigzag sleeves, moderately tight elbow sleeves and blouse coats with flowing sleeves.

Muffs are exceedingly large this season, a fact probably due to the present fashion of making outside garments with short sleeves. There are some big round muffs, especially in fox, but in the short skins the square flat shape is the best style. Some of the bag muffs are still seen, but they also are very large. Muffs are much decorated with beads and tails, but lace and artificial flowers are not now used in this connection.

Alpaca will fashion several of the dresses which the Princess of Wales is having built for her Indian trip, and alpaca will undoubtedly enjoy a distinct vogue, both in England and this country. Surely nothing could be smarter than a tailor made white alpaca, with a waistcoat of white bengaline, embroidered with gold and white braid, which is one of the princesses' new gowns.

A big jeweled button on the top of a dainty evening shoe is quite bewitching. It is a feature of the fancy button which finishes fancy tailormade coats, etc., to have rim and center in marked contrast. Amber, jade and other stones are introduced into them. To finish house dresses and their ilk there are innumerable

BAD BLOOD

"Before I began using Cascarets, I had a bad cold, my stomach was full of bile, and my food was not digested as it should have been. Now I am entirely well, and the people have all disappeared from my face. I can truly say that Cascarets is the best advertised medicine I have ever used." Charles R. Griffin, Sheridan, Ind.

Pleasant, Palatable, Potent, Taste Good, No Gripe, No Stomach, No Pain, No Laxative, No Cathartic, No Vomiting, No Diarrhea, No Fever, No Chills, No Headache, No Dizziness, No Weakness, No Fatigue, No Loss of Appetite, No Loss of Sleep, No Loss of Weight, No Loss of Color, No Loss of Vigor, No Loss of Health, No Loss of Life.

The long coat, in one shape or another, at its smartest of Empire construction, is the model of models in the wrap department.

A broad turnover collar, to fall over the shoulders of a light evening wrap, is slashed and bordered with English cut work. The embroidery is made in small squares, which are then applied onto the linen.

The woman who has hands of fur trimming stored away in her treasure chest is bringing them out to fashion an evening dress. Fur and rich lace form an excellent combination on a light silk.

The evening silks now this fall are exceptionally lovely. There are new shades, as well as new patterns and designs. Among the most beautiful are pompadour tulle, embroidered tulle, Messaline, duchesse, tulle, tulle, brocade, Messaline, embroidered satin, brocade and faille alters.

JAILED ON CHARGE OF EMBEZZLEMENT

WALTER BLASSINGAME, WANTED AT SILVER CITY, ARRESTED IN EL PASO.

Walter Blasingame, a young man who recently came to this city from Silver City, N. M., will be taken back to that place to answer to the charge of embezzlement, says the El Paso Herald.

Blasingame was arrested by detective Billy Smith yesterday afternoon, on a telegram from Sheriff C. A. Farnsworth of Silver City. He was found at his home at 908 North Florissant street, and readily went with the officer, when he became acquainted with the officer's business in his house.

The young man was locked up and will be detained until the arrival of the Silver City sheriff. Blasingame says that he has been employed as a driver of a coach running out of Silver City, and his employer did not pay his salary regular. He held out a sum for this reason.

Blasingame came to El Paso and obtained employment at the market house of Ardoin Bros.

SAN FRANCISCO NABBED ON CHARGE OF FORGERY.

Emil C. Rowan was arrested at Bismarck while attempting to cash a draft drawn by the First National bank of San Francisco in his favor for $281. Rowan has references from Dun & Co., of San Francisco, and is highly indignant at his arrest. The draft has the appearance of a clumsy forgery. Rowan had engaged a livery team to drive to Tombstone before he presented the draft for payment.

If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, nervousness or palpitation of the heart. Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and pull up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.
